Update: Man Identified in Death Investigation

UPDATE 9/7/21: The person found deceased along the Fanno Creek Trail last week has been positively identified as Preston Joshua Vermillion, age 46, from Wyoming.

Investigators found no signs of trauma and the medical examiner is determining the cause of death.

ORIGINAL 9/3/21: On 9/2/21 at 7:12 p.m. a man walked into the Tigard Police Department lobby and reported finding a body along the Fanno Creek Trail. He walked Tigard Police officers to a creek embankment behind the area of 8900 SW Burnham Street where the body of a man was located.

The medical examiner responded to the scene and is investigating the cause of death. Tigard detectives are also actively investigating the circumstances of this case. There are no signs of foul play or obvious signs of injuries to the deceased.

The scene is now clear and all walkways are back open. The man's name will be released once the medical examiner confirms his identity and his family is notified of his death.
